

Chester — Renzo Frau — 1912

Icône Poltrona Frau Icons

Ancor prima della Grande Guerra, Renzo Frau ha modo di scoprire a Londra, nei club più esclusivi, i divani e le poltrone detti Chesterfield. Intuendone le potenzialità, importa inizialmente i modelli in Italia e in seguito decide di produrli autonomamente, apportando delle sostanziali modifiche. Nasce così, nel 1912, il Chester di Frau, allora come oggi realizzato a mano.

Even before the Great War, Renzo Frau had already discovered the Chesterfield sofas and armchairs featured in London's most exclusive clubs. He immediately saw the potentiality of that item and decided to initially import the original models to Italy and suddenly produce them himself, making some major changes. It was thus that Frau's Chester was born in 1912 and hand-crafted, just as it is today.
