

Bonsai

Paolo Grasselli

A simple yet large tubular metal frame accommodates and holds a seat with soft, rounded shapes that emphasises the textile finishes used. Available in various sizes and heights, these poufs recall bonsai trees crafted by human hands which give shape to them with impeccable precision.