DESCRIPTION

The charm of a desk coming from ancient times, with modern taste lines and top-notch materials. Caio Mario is a surprise where - to the first impression of charm and elegance adds then the discovery of its practicality. Wooden writing desk covered in leather or open-pore ash veneer, its leather upholstery is embellished by a delicate visible stitching, while the top is enriched by a double chest of drawers which adds comfort to that of the writing top, thanks to it four drawers, added to those already present in the desk.
