

Mid-century inspired this 2 level side table with faux horn and smoked glass was originally designed as a phone table...remember landlines and phonebooks? Still makes sense for a phone but now you can use the other surface for magazines.