

Gently curved iron tubing creates the cradle for the black marble top. The sizes are designed so they can nest, one underneath the other, allowing you to pull out as more space is needed.