

An iron Mondrian-inspired pattern on the base is capped with a hammered antique brass top with rounded edges, giving it the appearance of a lid. The round shape makes it a perfect side table to float in the room between a pair of chairs.